THURSDAY. ..SEPTEMBER Very interesting news will be found under the telegraph head.

We will give one month's subscription of the PREST PRESE to any person who will bring to us a copy of our issue of Volume 1,

Ohio Mechanics' Institute - Opening Day.

This morning the bustle of arranging the rooms on the first floor and basements of Pike's Opera-house, for Ohio Mechanics' Institute Exhibition, will be at its culminating point, for the rooms will be thrown open this evening to the public. The opportunity is now given artists, mechanics and manufacturers, to display to the best advantage the trophies of their skill. The indications are that we are to be delighted with novelties, and to witness more than ordinary evidences of a progressive taste and skill in Cincinnati during the present exhibition.

A Live Ex-Governor.

At the great risk of our own life, we have inadvertently taken the life (paragraphically) of Ex-Governor CHARLES A. WICKLIPPE, of Kentucky. (Itemically,) we to-day resurrect him, better than ever. "He still lives," and long may he live.

Inauguration.

A social gathering of pupils and friends of Wesleyan Female College will take place at this excellent institution to-night, introducing the new President, Robert Allyn, in a social way. Dr. CLARK will express toward the new comer a suitable greeting. Already have we proffered to Mr. ALLYN a cordial welcome to this field of educational labor.

ment of Soils.

Gabriel Sleath, an old gardener of this city, pithily says, the soil is intended for cultivation forever, as long as men of sense live on it. If the earth continues to give a bounteous crop, it must not be robbed of its power to produce again and again. A sensible cultivator will treat his land right, and the land will treat him right. It must be properly underdrained; and, in measure and character, by manure or otherwise, the same preperties taken from the ground in crops must be returned. This is an important point too frequently ignored. We must be honest and kind to the earth-we must give and take-and give back of the same kind wetake. If we produce a crop of wheat, what the earth parts with to make wheat, must be returned. What goes into corn, or wheat, or vegetables, must be returned in kind, by ploughing in the stalk or decaying leaf, or by similar constituent elements in manure. The soil grows sick and illiberal only because we are poor doctors and unskillful nurses or husbandmen.

Cincinnati Horticultural Society. This organization is rapidly becoming a fifth estate in the realm. As a senate of the people it is a decided Institution. It, as an onen forum, when the experienced terra-flori, or horticulturist, can vindicate the best methods and expose shallow artifice and humbuggery. It comprehends, as members, the thinking and practical gardeners, fruit-growers and nurserymen of the neighborhood, and is engressing the attention of correspondents and contributors from other States. It has business officers and industrious committees; it has a full library of books of reference, and illustrates in the productions of its members what industry and intelligence can do to improve and adorn what it touches. Every Saturday morning these workers come from their gardens and their orchards to the congress, discuss, debate, exhibit samples of novelties and compare. So much for their self-culture. Semi-annually, we, the people, are invited to their Fairs or public displays. The Fall Exhibition will be held at the Palace Garden, on Vine-street, below Fifth, commencing September 6.

THE CITY COUNCIL .- The City Council adjourned last night, while discussing the proposition to award the street cleaning contract. The whole discussion was "flat, stale and unprofitable." There was but little business done; what was done, in two instances, was reconsidered. All important measures, in extraordinary cases only excepted, should be discussed in committee, and after mature report further detail would reldom be required. The bonds of water works officers were sent in, and reesized, with expectation that the reception would be formal, and then the papers be returned to the special custody of the water works Trusteer. First, the return was refused; then granted. The subject matter of amending the Street Railroad ordinance, so as to reduce the width of guage from five feet two inches to four feet ten inches, was introduced, but was summarily laid on the table. We prophesy that it will be taken up and passed.

Editorial and Selected Melange.

The anatomists say that the vocal organ i the most perfect musical instrument ever constructed. Why is it that we have not American voices more generally cultured for Opera Music? Mrs. James, and others, manifest the native power of our own melodists when trained by skillful masters. We apprehend that the wide-spread taste for music in our midst has been accelerated by the skill and labors of our musical instructors in the common schools, and by the measures of the Music Committee of the School Board.

The severe restriction against free colored people entering New Orleans goes into effect

A German lady took her lad, some three years old, to her Lutheran Minister, the other day, for a private christening. She had him dressed up, head combed, and hair nicely "roached," which was done to the complaisant satisfaction of young Germano-Americo. As satisfaction of young Germano-Americo. As the sprinkling was being done, and the hand laid on the lad's head, he abruptly broke forth, necessity and importance of enforcing the laid on the lad's head, he abruptly broke forth, "Darn you, don't you spile my reach, or I'll kick you." The parson got through formally; but, with him and the mother, on retiring, there was a hearty explosion in laughter. You can get along with bigger bodies than that boy, provided you don't spoil their roach.

OBBRLIS COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT. - The Twenty-sixth Annual Commencement of Oberlin College, took place on Wednesday, 24th of August. There was a graduating class of twenty-five-five of them were young ladies, and one a colored man.

Be busy in improving the instrumentalities within your reach. Our reason always employs itself with success, when it strives to render experimental truths useful to us: when it prudently makes use of God's favors and praises him for the same. This is the whole sum of man's knowledge.

Too Many SERMONS .- The courage of the preacher and the patience of the hearers give way under too many liscourses. Short sermons and spicy, should be the order of the

THE EXPLOSION ON THE ALBEMARLE AND CHESEPHAKE CANAL.-The three slaves killed by the explosion of a boiler on the Albemarle and Chesepeako Canal, last Tuesday, were owned by Messes. Nehemiah Foreman, Jesse D. Sykes and Caleb J. Etterage, The whole loss by the accident is $10,000. The Norfolk Argus says of the explosion :

It was heard several miles distant. Three valuable young slave men were terribly man-gled, and a large portion of the body of one of the killed could not be found. One was cut in two; heads and limbs were blown off, and portions of flesh and blood scattered in every direction. The machine was completely wrecked, and the huge timbers of which it was made brown about and shivered to pieces. Large limbs were torn from trees a hundred feet from the machine, and the place where the accident occurred presented frightful evidences of the force and power of the explosion.

Hogs Assessed in Kentucky.

The Louisville Courier has received the returns of the hogs assessed in that State for the present year, from all the counties but eleven. The counties that are not yet reported are Jefferson, Letcher, Marion, Harlan, Perry, Simpson, Union, Franklin, Greenup, Hardin and Hickman. The report last year embraced all the counties but two. They were Marion and Harlan, neither of which have reported this year, and the comparative returns of this season Like for Like--Homoeopathic Treat- with last, embraces all but nine counties, as follows:

LEXINGTON RACES .- There will be two meetings on the Lexington Race-grounds this fall; an extra one, commencing on Saturday, September 10, and which will continue during Monday and Tuesday of the State Fair. The regular meeting will commence on Monday, the 20th of the same month, and continue all the week. These races are always attended by "sporting men," from all parts of the country. We believe they have the reputation of being conducted with fairness, and those desirous of investing in uncertainties would do well to attend. Handbills, giving full particulars, can be seen at different places in our

ARREST OF A MISSOURI JUDGE .- Judge John Watson was recently arrested at Keytesville, Chariton County, on a charge of having been one of the party who broke open the county safe, about a year and a half ago, and robbed it of some $5,000. The Grand Jury of that county indicted him for grand larceny and burglary, and he was required to give bail to the amount of $2,000. This case attracts a great deal of public attention, partly from the fact that the accused is a man of considerable wealth, and at the time the crime was committed was one of the Judges of the County

It is estimated that the song of T e Old Arm Chair, set to music, has cleared the publisher over $200,000. The following receipt shows its original cost:

Received, May 14, 1841, of Mr. Charles Jeffreys, the sum of two pounds twoshillings, for copyright of words song of written by me, entitled The Old Arm Chair, music by Mr. Hine.

The song has since cost a Mr. Kyle, of London, about $10,000, (costs of a suit,) in contesting an injunction restraining him from printing and selling it.

A man who lives at Douvrend, Europe, declares-so says an English paper-that for sixty years he has drank three quarter litres (nearly two bottles) of brandy, four cups of coffee, and four litres of cider a day; and this has been calculated to amount to 114,875 litres of liquid in all, or sufficient to turn a certain mill, at Carriere, for the period of one hour six minutes and thirteen seconds.

W. H. Barber, an English lawyer, convicted of forgery some years since, and sent to a penal settlement where he was publicly whipped and kept in chains, has at last been found innocent—the victim of a foul conspiracy. He spent $50,000 in defending himself when on trial, and half this sum Parliament has awarded to him.

Steam power has been applied to sewing-machines. An upright engine has been introduced into a clothing manufactory at Albany, which occupies the space of about one cubic foot, and works several sewing-machines to perfection.

DR. JAMES' Office is No. 79 West Fourth-street, up stairs, one door below Pike's Opera-house, where he can be consulted from nine A. M. till five P. M.
